

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW SCHEDULE

1ST SEMESTER OF ACADEMIC YEAR 2022/2023

Lecturers: Prof. Dr. Thomas Schmitz, Dr. Fajri M. Muhammadiyah

Concentration class: 2 sessions/week

6. Special: Covid-19 and Human Rights (comments from an Indonesian perspective)
7. Geo-Regional human rights law (part 2)
 - A. Arab human rights law
 - B. Asian (Lack of) human rights law
8. TWAIL
 - A. An “Alternate” Reading of History?
 - B. International law-making and what to make of it
 - C. Human Rights and the Clash of Civilizations/Cultures/Identities?
9. Human Rights and Religion
 - A. Clash of epistemologies
 - B. Religious responses to human rights
 - C. International instruments on human rights and religion
 - D. Political complexities of human rights and religion
10. Human Rights and Armed Conflict
 - A. The relation between two sub-legal regimes
 - B. Negotiating human rights
 - C. Jus Post Bellum
11. Indonesia and Human Rights
 - A. From Colonialism to the Present day
 - B. The question of incorporation/transformation
 - C. Ideological and political discourses of legal interpretation
 - D. Indonesian Human Rights 4.0