

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Contribution to the course from the perspective of comparison of laws

Contents

Preliminary remark: At the Faculty of Law of Universitas Gadjah Mada the courses are shared by several lecturers. This table informs about the contents of my lectures in May 2023. They complement those of the colleagues from the perspective of comparison of laws with a special focus on German administrative law.

§ 1 Introduction

- I. Why studying administrative law with a comparative approach?
- II. The common background: the commitment of public administration in a free and democratic constitutional state to the rule of law and the respect of fundamental rights

§ 2 The elements of the legality of the administrative decision

- I. Backgrounds
- II. Legality and validity of administrative decisions
- III. Legality and expediency of administrative decisions
- IV. The heterogeneous structure of the examination of the legality of administrative decisions
- V. The basic structure of the examination of the legality of admin. decisions in French law, European Union law and German law
- VI. The elements of legality in detail - the example of Germany

§ 3 Exercise in practical case-solving in the field of administrative law

- We will solve together (during the lecture but with preparation at home) a practical case concerning the legality and the judicial review of an administrative decision under German admin. law.
- with brief introduction to the advanced German methods of legal case-solving

More information on this course contribution at www.thomas-schmitz-yogyakarta.id. For any questions, suggestions and criticism please contact me via WhatsApp or e-mail (tschmit1@gwdg.de) or in my office (Building A, room A.IV.11).